

Forty Years in Search of Perfection in Form and Colour

OUR FOUNDER

The English Iris Company was set up in 2013 to champion British tall Bearded Irises. Our Irises are drawn from the award winning Collection hybridised by Bryan Dodsworth over forty years in his Nottinghamshire garden.

He raised plants of exceptional quality developed through rigorous selection. 'A Perfect Flower (in proportion to stem height), carried on branches spaced evenly along the stem, allowing each flower to be enjoyed and admired individually'.

Twelve times a Dykes Medal Winner (The Oscar of the Iris Hybridising World). No one had previously won the British medal more than four times in its ninety year history.

The most celebrated Twentieth Century Hybridiser of British Tall Bearded Irises.

OUR IRISES

Grown in UK. Tried and tested in British growing conditions. Hardy, tolerant of extremes of heat and cold. Just get the basics right and these plants will last for years.

GROWING IRISES (THE BASICS)

- Choose a sunny site (hotter the better)
- Soil free draining / PH neutral
- Plant leaving top half of rhizome exposed
- Feed with bone meal in Spring & Autumn (no Nitrogen)
- Split to ensure repeat flowering (refer website)

GARDEN VISITS/OPEN DAYS

All visits are by appointment only. There are days when the Garden is open to the public.
These are publicised on the Website/Local Media.

Should you wish to visit the Nursery we recommend you phone first to avoid disappointment and a wasted journey.

TALKS

We are happy to provide Talks for Garden Societies/Other Groups between November and April each year. For logistical reasons, we concentrate our talks in our local area Norfolk/Suffolk, but other approaches may be considered.

Grown in UK. Tolerant of Extremes of Heat and Cold

GARDEN ADVICE

We provide advice to Customers who are keen to grow Tall Bearded Irises. We recommend planting schemes and carry out the planting both in UK and abroad.

PARTNER GARDENS

We have established Collections of our Irises at Newnham College, Cambridge and Doddington Hall near Lincoln. We are actively seeking opportunities to partner with other high profile Gardens in UK and abroad.
